

Random Acts of Stupidity, Incompetence, or Discourtesy Gloves

This document was first completed on Sunday, July 10, 2016, and was most recently revised on Tuesday, January 18, 2022.

Here's a picture of the new gloves that I bought.

Here's a picture of the security device and the wire tie with which the gloves were tied together. It said "Please Remove Before Wearing." Huh?

Did they instruct me to remove the thing to make me feel insecure, or so that I could GET MY HANDS APART when I use the gloves!?!?

How stupid to they think I am!?!?

Oh, by the way, the gloves came from Home Depot.
